CLIENT CONFLICT OF INTEREST DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

From time to time Durham Affordable Housing Coalition makes our clients aware of products and/or services that we believe offer good value to our clients. These products and/or services might be available directly from Durham Affordable Housing Coalition, from lenders, developers, or other agencies with which Durham Affordable Housing Coalition has a working relationship, including but not limited to the attached list. You are under no obligation to use the products and/or services identified by Durham Affordable Housing Coalition, whether from us or from industry partners. Please understand that you are free to choose any lender, lending/financing product, or home, from any entity regardless of the recommendations made by the Durham Affordable Housing Coalition representative and still participate in our counseling program. It is your right and responsibility to decide whether to engage in any course of counseling with Durham Affordable Housing Coalition and to determine whether the counseling is suitable for you. The individual action plan and direction of our counseling sessions will be based on the housing counseling action plan that we will develop together. The means to accomplish the outcomes and goals of your plan will evolve mutually between us and should be reviewed regularly during our counseling sessions. Additionally, you are under no obligation to obtain a mortgage or purchase a home and have the option to terminate the counseling program at any time for any reason.

I have reviewed the above and accept and agree to the above stated conflict of interest and disclosure policy. Every client is required to sign this statement, indicating they have read and understand its contents.

I _____ (please print name) certify that I have read and understand the above statement. Any questions I may have had were previously discussed with my counselor and answered to my satisfaction. I have provided with a copy of this disclosure statement.

COUNSELING AGREEMENT

In order to solve specific housing and other related problems, the applicant recognizes the need for counseling and pledges full cooperation with the counselor. The applicant authorizes the counselor to act on his/her behalf in order to improve his/her housing situation and obtain necessary services.

The applicant understands that any and all information that is required to obtain the help needed, and must be supplied by the applicant. The applicant further authorizes the counselor to obtain other information from outside sources (including a credit report from one or all of the three credit reporting agencies) when necessary. The need to exchange information or pass on information is also recognized by the client. It is further understood by the applicant that information obtained will be used to assist applicant in obtaining their housing needs.

The counselor pledges to preserve strict confidentiality concerning the applicant, and will neither give nor seek information except where others have a right to it. The counselor will make no decisions and take no action without the knowledge and consent of the applicant. At all times, the counselor will act to protect and promote the best interest of the applicant.

Durham Affordable Housing Coalition Privacy Policy

Durham Affordable Housing Coalition is committed to assuring the privacy of individuals and/or families who have contacted us for assistance. We realize that the concerns you bring to us are highly personal in nature. We assure you that all information shared both orally and in writing will be managed within legal and ethical considerations. Your “nonpublic personal information,” such as your total debt information, income, living expenses and personal information concerning your financial circumstances, will be provided to creditors, program monitors, and others only with your authorization and signature on the Foreclosure Mitigation Counseling Agreement. We may also use anonymous aggregated case file information for the purpose of evaluating our services, gathering valuable research information and designing future programs.

Types of information that we gather about you

- Information we received from you orally, on applications or other forms, such as your name, address, social security number, assets, and income;
- Information about your transactions with us, your creditors, or others, such as your account balance, payment history, parties to transactions and credit card usage; and
- Information we receive from a credit reporting agency, such as your credit history.

You may opt-out of certain disclosures

- You have the opportunity to “opt-out” of disclosures of your nonpublic information to third parties (such as your creditors), that is, direct not to make those disclosures.
- If you choose to “opt-out”, we will not be able to answer questions from your creditors. If at anytime, you wish to change your decision with regard to your “opt-out”, you may call us at 919-683-1185.

Release of your information to third parties

- So long as you have not “opt-out”, we may disclose some or all of the information that we collect, as described above, to your creditors or third parties where we have determined that it would be helpful to you, would aid us in counseling you, or is a requirement of grant awards which make our services possible.
- We may also disclose any nonpublic personal information about you or former customers to anyone as permitted by law (e.g., if we are compelled by legal process).
- Within the organization, we restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide services to you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.
